You begin to reflect on the death of Emilia Genevieve Bryce. It was good work on the part of whomever did it, but it quite the pity that you didn't get to destroy her yourself. You know that you meant to get around to it. Hopefully, before take off even. But somehow you got delayed. Wait a minute? What were you doing before take off. You can't really seem to remember. Sometimes, this has been happening of late. These gaps in your mind. Once you even read about, what was clearly your handiwork in the Times one morning, but you couldn't seem to recall what you'd done the night before. Not that it matters really. As long as they get cleansed, you don't need to remember it. Perhaps this is even the Almighty rewarding you. You purge the world of sin and He purges your mind in return. No matter. You must keep up the fight no matter what, and now that you're done with Emilia you can move on to...Wait a minute? Maybe you didn't miss your chance to destroy Emilia...

The most important thing in life is doing whatever you need to do to get ahead. Considering that fact, if that means lying, cheating, stealing, manipulating people, or whatever, it doesn't matter as long as you end up getting what you want. People are means to an end, and are tools to be used as such. Trust as few people as possible for as short as possible, lest they betray you and stab you in the back. Remember other people are ambitious too, and there is no such thing as being too paranoid. In the end, the only person you can trust completely is yourself. C-Packet:

You realize that you should listen to your Mother more. She was the one who made you, and has always taken care of you. You will probably be an engineer one day just like her, but for now you're satisfied just being Mother's helper. You may use the enclosed ability.

William (Gael Colas) - S-Packet

S-Packet:

You like fixing things! The most important calling in life is to make sure airships stay afloat, trains don't crash, and machines keep on working. You like tinkering with things, and figuring out how they work, but you would certainly like to know more. You can probably get a lot of training from Sidney Davis. You may use the enclosed ability.
